

Marie-Claire Aoun is Director of Strategy and Institutional Relations at Teréga, a gas transmission and storage operator in France. She is also leading the project of future interconnection between France and Spain on hydrogen (H2med/Barmar) for Teréga. Holding a PhD in Economics from Paris Dauphine University (2008), Marie-Claire Aoun served previously as a Policy officer for the French energy regulator (CRE) between 2008 and 2014, and was the Director of the Center for Energy and Climate at the French Institute of International Relations (IFRI) between 2014 and 2017.

Marie-Claire Aoun was also a lecturer specialized in Geopolitics of energy at Paris Dauphine University between 2010 and 2024 and at Sciences Po Paris between 2020 and 2024. She was also the Chair of the European consortium Gas for Climate between 2021 and 2024.