

Stéphane Michel (born February 17, 1973, French nationality) has been a member of the Executive Committee since March 1, 2021. A graduate of École Polytechnique (1994) and École des Mines de Paris (1997), he is a Chief Engineer of the Corps des Mines.

From 2002 to 2004, he served as Technical Advisor for Energy to the French Minister of Economy, Finance, and Industry. He joined TotalEnergies in 2005 as Head of Development for the Refining & Marketing division in the Asia-Pacific region, based in Singapore.

In 2008, he became Joint Venture and Business Development Manager at Total E&P Qatar, then Managing Director of Total E&P Libya in 2010. In 2011, he was appointed Managing Director of Total E&P Qatar, and on April 1, 2014, he became Director for the Middle East & North Africa and a member of the Exploration & Production branch's Management Committee.

Since March 1, 2021, Stéphane Michel has been General Director of Gas, Renewables & Power and a member of the Executive Committee.